LIVE AID

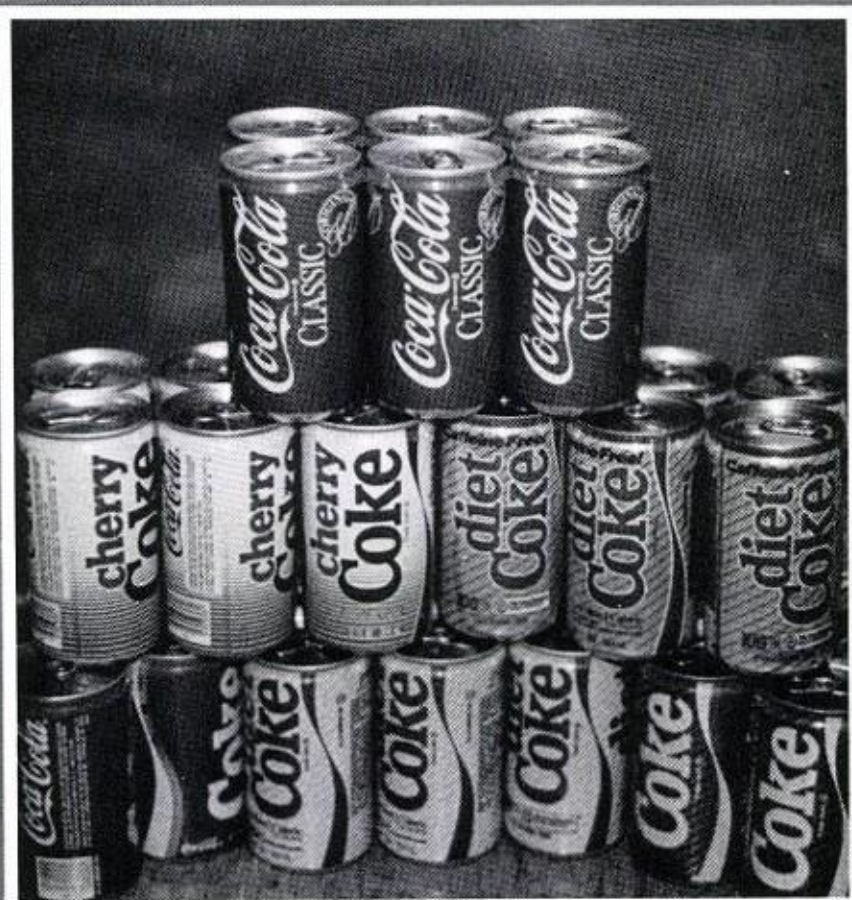

1986 saw an outpouring of concern about helping others through Live Aid, Band Aid, Farm Aid and Hands Across America.

BOB cuts

"Look at the bobs, of course they go to Central."

WHICH COKE IS IT?

First it was Coke, then diet Coke, but then they made it caffeine-free before making it cherry. Now there's Coca-Cola Classic. Is it the real thing?

DEAN PETERSON

Mr. Peterson bounced into administration from the basketball court, becoming Dean of Students.

EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Central hosted a great number of foreign exchange students who shared their culture and experienced ours.

FLIGHT tragedy

At first we heard the rumors and then the facts unfolded as Fr. Kaylor confirmed the tragedy of the 25th space shuttle mission. The Challenger and her crew of seven, including teacher Christa McAuliffe, forced NASA to reevaluate the space program.

GAS $

Pennies piled in our pockets as the price of petroleum plunged.

HALLEY'S comet

Halley's Comet made a much heralded but disappointing visit. Did you see it? If not, don't worry, it'll be back in the year 2062.

INTELLIGENCE

Congratulations to John Vgnos, our National Merit Finalist.

JOBS

Matt Harig and Bob Bazzoli at Click's.

Pam Truax at McDonald's.

Susan Woods and Janelle Kramer at Ponderosa.

KLINEFELTER

Lowell Klinefelter has directed Central's football program for 13 years. This is longer than any other Stark County football coach, making him the dean of Stark County's football coaches.

MIAMI VICE

Don Johnson and Phillip Michael Thomas in Miami Vice pioneered the merging of music video into network television. The nation was swept up in "Don Johnson Mania."

Team Visitation Report

Everyone was on their best behavior for the North Central visitors who evaluated our school's classes, activities, administration, and students.

OPUS

Everyone's favorite penguin!

PLAYOFFS

The Crusaders compiled a 9 and 3 record and played into the Regional Finals.

EAQ

Central rocked on January 31, 1986. At 11:47 AM, an earthquake shook Ohio and eight other states. The quake, centered 30 miles east of Cleveland, registered a five on the Richter scale. Even though those on the fourth floor were frightened, it solved a problem for us — what to use for Q.

REMcMODELED

In 1986 McDonald's finished remodeling, giving us an expanded dining area and a playground to play in.

SWATCHES

Swatch was the watch.

eUchre

Euchre trumped finishing reports, studying for tests, and doing homework in senior study hall.

VENDING machines

Snickers as you Crunch Mounds of Almond Joy!

Last summer the Math Lab expanded to take over Mr. Naegeli's room, giving Central a 25-piece computer lab.

eXam week

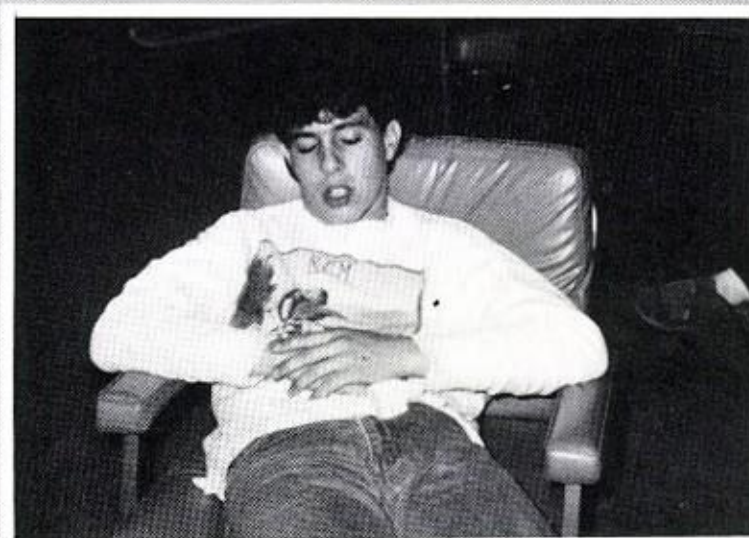

After eight semesters have passed, final exams at last.

100 YEARS

The Statue of Liberty's facelift was completed this year, marking the 100th anniversary of its dedication. On October 28, 1886, the Statue of Liberty was dedicated by Grover Cleveland. Funds for the facelift were contributed by Americans everywhere.

JR/SR HALLOWEEN DANCE

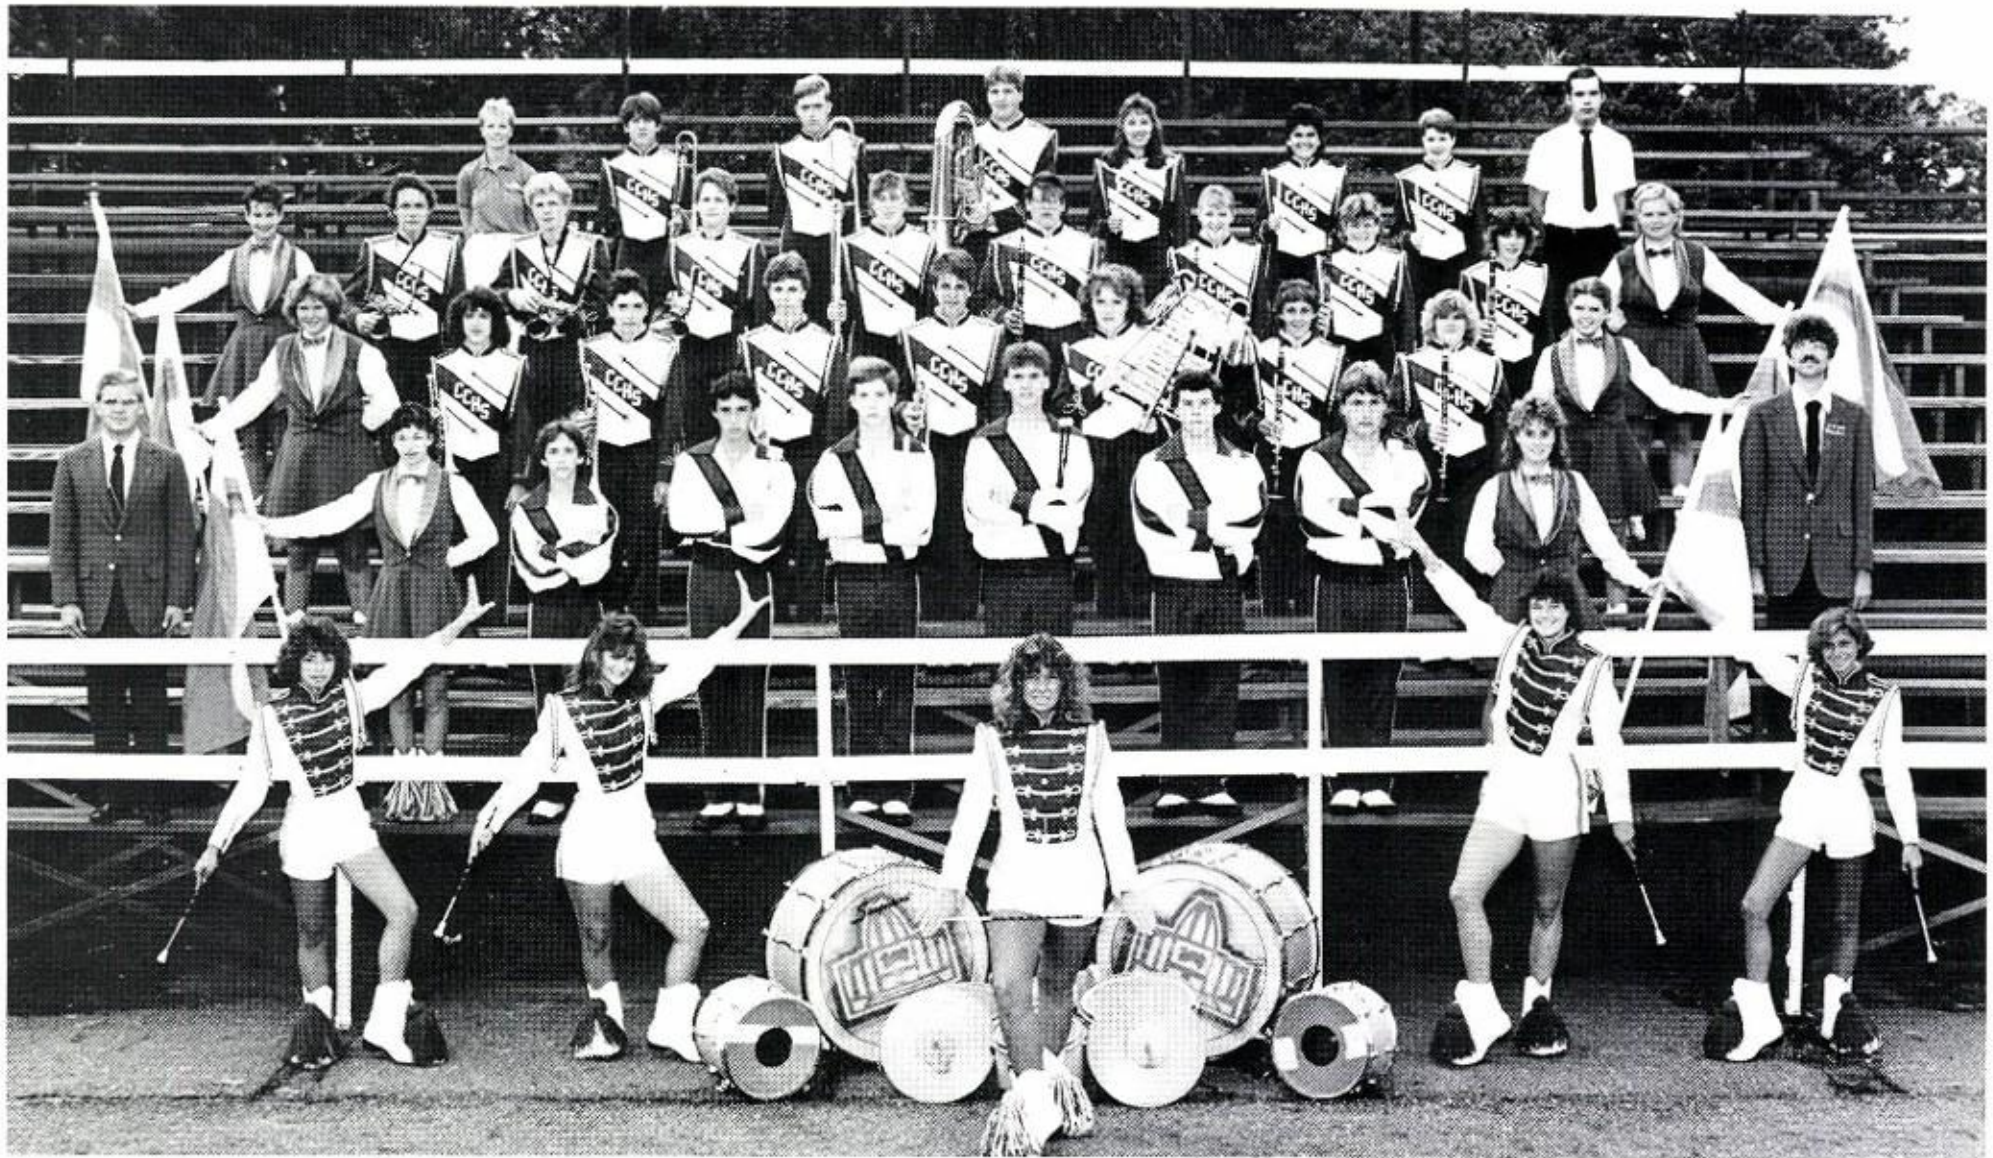

Planned by the junior and senior class officers, the 1985 Junior-Senior Halloween Dance, held on Saturday, October 26, was a great success. Black and orange crepe paper along with a generous supply of oak leaves added to the atmosphere of the gym. Audrey Holtgreive arrived with the most original costume, the human version of the yellow brick road. Other prize winners were Tim Reicosky and prima ballerina Patrick Duffy, as the scariest and the cutest, respectively. John Scheetz and his midget twin, Tim Smith, captured best pair. Our best faculty costume (will we ever forget?) was Mr. Hudnall as everyone's favorite aunt, Aunt Jemima.

A black and white photograph showing a man lying on railroad tracks, bound with thick rope. He is wearing a horizontally striped shirt and dark trousers. His hands are tied together in front of him, and his feet are also bound. He is looking towards the camera with a slight smile. In the background, a large steam locomotive is positioned on the tracks. The locomotive has a prominent five-pointed star on its front circular door. The scene is set outdoors on a gravel bed with some vegetation visible in the distance.

KEITH McGONAGLE

We remember you
as child, brother, and friend.
We remember you
as part of a special pair - Kevin's twin.
We remember you
as a member of our family.
We remember you
as you grew from tot to teenager.
We remember you
with your impish grin that broke into your special smile.
We remember you
as you glowed with happiness and life.
We remember you
for all the joy that you brought into our lives.
We remember you
when in our grief and sorrow, you were nowhere to be found.
We remember you
and in remembering, we know how much we miss you.
We remember you
and in remembering, we know how much we love you.

TIM VALENTINE

- A boy so young
- A boy so brite
- Loved by one and all
- Has left us for a better place
Where he may rest his soul
- The hands of time cannot be set
- To play this back again
- We must be strong
For our hears to mend
- Dear God in heaven hear me
- I'm crying to you now
- Please take care of Timmy
- We know you will somehow
- I know someday we'll
Understand why Timmy's
Time has come
- But for now, all we know is
That your will be done

AMEN

Shelly Valentine

SENIOR PEOPLE PAGE

The past four years at Central have provided many memorable moments for the Class of 1986. The seniors were asked to answer a few questions about their high school years and the future. We received some very interesting replies.

When asked about their nicest memory from Central, NOELLE MONNOT recalled the first day of school freshman year. LAURA MILLER felt Freshman Day of Recollection started us off in a good way, and BRIAN LIPPERT enjoyed Aquinas Week 1982. ROMERO LLAMAS treasures all the people and all the unbelievable things they'll do to get a laugh. All the new and close friends were important for MICHELLE D'ANGELO and JOHN LEONARD. DANIELA LUNGOCIU enjoyed meeting different people and discovering how they were inside. ANN SMITH loves the friends she made over the past four years. Senior Service and delivering food baskets were good experiences for KELLY BROOKS. Senior retreats produced many special memories for the entire class. TONY BRUNNER remembers Camp NEOSA best. Telling stories around the fire on retreat number four was special for FRANK FERRANTE, and TOM KINGSBURY was glad to meet Shelley Adolph on the sixth retreat. Being in the play "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat" was most important to PAM POPA, and PATTY PROEBSTLE enjoyed the production of "Godspell." AUDREY HOLTGREIVE's nicest memory is of Lisa Hightower singing at the Christmas pageant. Winning the Talent Show three years in a row sticks in the mind of JOHN GARTON. KIRSTIN STEIGER will never forget the support she received while recovering from her accident. KIM NODO fondly remembers Luiz Guimaraes. Sports were also important to the seniors. Winning the State "AA" Golf championship is PETE DEVITO's favorite memory. ROGER DUFFY liked the 1986 football season, and TOM McBRIDE enjoyed the State Playoffs. In the past four years, many funny things have happened at Central.

LEANN HARPER enjoyed Mr. Hudnall's slides of Europe. This year's Christmas assembly supplied many laughs. TOM ORCUTT appreciated Mr. Blaumeiser's act in the "Twelve Days of Christmas," and HEATHER MAITE liked "Grandma Got Runover By a Reindeer." JOHN SCHEETZ found the way people dress up for rallies humorous. Doug Vogley's Wrestle Mania act was the funniest thing BRET GAFF saw. DAVE ERTLE also got a kick when Doug dressed like a girl, and all the guys were chasing him. DAVE BOERNER giggled at Brian Mulroy's pig-tails. Clothing mishaps were the center of much attention. JOEL HEMBREE thought it was funny when Chuck Peters wore his shirt inside out, and ANNA HAYMAKER was amused when Monica Pfeiffer had on two different shoes. FRANK FRIEDMAN laughed during period four's grass stain contest. Getting in a "minor" car accident while riding with Beth Remlinger was the funniest thing to JENNIFER ROBERTS. MICHELLE KALKMAN found it humorous when Eric DeVito fell off his chair and into a closet. PETE GRANCHI got a kick out of accidentally pushing Matt Basso into the fire alarm. While playing Miami Vice in the parking lot, Pam Truax tripped and did a split. PEGGY BA- TISTA found this funny. AKEMI MATSUHASHI was amused when two boys walked into the library's glass door. MIKE MARTELL enjoyed watching Fr. Miller getting thrown in the lake.

During the past four years, everybody was embarrassed at least once. ANNE GILL remembers getting her desk tipped over during a marker fight with Greg Blate, and RONNIE SCHEETZ fell on the floor when his desk got tilted. In Algebra II, JOE POPA was asleep and fell out of his desk. TODD KIEFER was embarrassed when the janitor woke him up in Study Hall after 2:15. An entire table collapsed when MIKE KLINGAMAN sat on it. If only people would learn to walk, BRENDA LIZOTTE wouldn't have fallen down the stairs, and ANNE HALEY would not have tripped in front of several freshmen. While entering the stadium, MIKE SHAUB was embarrassed because he missed a step and rolled over his drum. TOM CASEY twisted his ankle while attempting to touch the basketball rim. He ended up in a cast for three weeks, but that's nothing. Just ask DAN DAHLGREN, who broke his foot three times and spent what seemed like his entire senior year on crutches. JENNIFER GORKOS was almost too afraid to give blood, and CHRIS YINGLING doesn't like to admit that he got sick when they pricked his finger. ANTHONY MALACAMAN passed out during junior theology class. JOE AUDI reddens when speaking of his skiing accident. DAVE MEIER was shocked to find he made the film of the girl's basketball game after pulling a stupid stunt. CHRIS MANOLAKIS had some trouble with the computer when it wouldn't stop printing. JIM LAMBERJACK was embarrassed when he got over one hundred percent on his English test. On her seventeenth birthday, TERESA KEANE had to carry around a dozen helium balloons. When TRISH LUNDQUIST was a freshman, she was late because some seniors wouldn't let her in her locker. LINDA LATTAVO did not enjoy when Mr. Lenz put L.I.D., standing for Linda's in dress-code, on the board and kept a running tally. During a wrestling match, CRAIG REESE wore his singlet inside out. JOHN WAGNER had some difficulty playing T.A.G. when he mistook Pete DeVito's younger brother for his target. JEFF ZWICK was embarrassed when his canoe tipped in the middle of Lake NEOSA. Nicknames develop for many different reasons. Wouldn't you like to hear the stories behind some of these? DAVID JOHNSTONE is referred to as "Thope." "Bubba" is the synonym for CHRIS MARKOCH, and PAUL SHADLE is commonly called "Shaffer." Everyone knows PAUL KEFFLER is "Fred," and JEFF ROSSETTI is the notorious "Joe Thrash." MIKE HERDLICK found himself being called "Mr. Cranberry." "Slick" was the nickname chosen for MATT BYHAM. MARK BONNOT and "Farmboy" are similar terms. BRIAN MULROY became famous under the pen name "Sly." "Campbell's Soup Kid" is a reference to SUE LYON. PAT MCGONAGLE was always "Hoogs." JOHN MILLER grew infamous under the name "Killer." "Lupe" was the nickname given LAURA WOLFINGER. Alterations of actual names brought about many titles. PAM TRUAX was "Little Tru," and KURT SHUBERT was "Shubie." DEBBIE MARCOVECHIO was referred to as "Little Debbie Snack Cake." Nobody knew "Jay" KRACKER's name was really JENNIFER. JULIANNE SPINO was often called "JuJu." TOM ADAMS was shortened to "T.A.," and DAN-

NY BELDEN to "DB III."

During our time at Central, we all prepared for the years ahead. Everyone seemed to have different outlooks on their future. ANGELA DEEMS plans on majoring in dentistry at OSU. Also at Ohio State will be KELLY CALDAS working on her degree in aeronautical/astronautical engineering. MICHELLE LEWANDOWSKI will study the foreign language field at Ohio University. LINDA COEN plans on attending Kent State along with TIM SWANSINGER. BETH REMLINGER is going to study the travel industry at South Eastern Academy. At the University of Toledo, WILFRED SANTOS wants to major in business. ED HERZOG is attending the University of Charleston to study political science. JENNIFER VINCENT plans to become a doctor after majoring in chemistry at Mount Union. At Bowling Green, LISA ADAMS wants to study business. MICHELLE KUSTER is going to play volleyball at Walsh, and PAT DUFFY and his brother are going to play football at Penn State. College and law school are where PATRICIA BUGG is headed. JULIE CLUTE wants her Master's degree in psychology. Nursing is the career plan for JULIE JOLIAT. BLAKE FITHEN is going into the army. After returning to Japan, EMI HIRANO will finish high school and someday come back to Ohio. DONNA BARR is looking forward to college and travel. MATT WATTERS hopes to make a ton of money but do as little as necessary to earn it. BOB BAZZOLI is going to make some very rich girl very happy. To be happy and change the world is CRIS CHARNOCK's future plan. JOHN SKAKUN would like to live on the beach in North Carolina. In his busy future, JOEL SCHNEIDER would like to go to college, get a job, buy Iran, get married, and retire. CARL CHAPPIE dreams of drawing his own comic book someday, and TOMAS MILLER is going to play the lottery and wait for Central Catholic reunions.

HAPPY RETIREMENT

SISTER ANGELA

Sister Angela Hough is retiring after a full teaching career at the elementary, high school and college levels. Sister earned her Master's Degree at Peabody College, now part of Vanderbilt University. Sister spent four years in post-graduate study and in teaching at the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. Sister Angela spent most of her career at St. John's College in Cleveland, where in addition to teaching classes she also served as the Director of Liberal Education, until the school's closing in 1975 because of financial exigency. During this time, Sister also taught courses at Siena College in Memphis, and at Loyola University in New Orleans. Central has been Sister Angela's home for the past eleven years, during which time she has taught Honors English and courses ranging from Advanced Writing to Shakespeare. Sister is looking forward to spending more time researching and writing on the history and literature of Ireland and of the English Renaissance. Best Wishes, Sister Angela.

MR. SHORI

Mr. Gullielmo A. Shori is retiring this year after seven successful years at Central. He has taught a total of forty years at other schools including Marlinton, McKinley, and Canton South. He received his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Kent State University. He has taught technical drawing, wood working, metal working, and machine shop. Most students know him as the Director of Parking. Just this year, Mr. Shori celebrated his fortieth wedding anniversary with his long-suffering wife, Rosie. He has three sons, one daughter, and one grand-daughter. He is active at his church, St. Anthony's, and other organizations such as the Unique Club of Stark County, the Stark County Teachers' Association, and is on the Italian Central Committee. He has enjoyed all his years of teaching and believes this is because he teaches students and doesn't babysit them. Mr. Shori is now planning on enjoying his Social Security, his marriage, and his good health. We wish you well Mr. Shori.

On behalf of this year's staff, thanks to all of those who have contributed to the 1986 Vigil. Special thanks to Sr. Jane Marie for her support throughout the year and Fr. Kaylor for coordinating the taking of the team pictures. We are also deeply indebted to Troup and Pluto Studios for providing all of our film. Thanks to Mr. David Warther and the Warther museum in Dover for their cooperation in allowing us to take our division page pictures at the museum. A final thanks to the forty staff members who committed themselves to the making of the 1986 Vigil.

Sincerely,

Julie Price
